

COL. S. C. PARK RESIGNS

Commander of the First Regiment, N. G. U., Leaves the Organization.

Colonel Sam C. Park of the First regiment, national guard of Utah, has resigned his position with the state militia. His resignation was sent in to headquarters a day or two ago and an order was issued yesterday notifying the guard that it had been accepted. This action on the part of Colonel Park, who has been with the militia for several years, came as a surprise to most of his friends, though it was known to some of them that he had this move in contemplation. As to who will succeed the colonel, nothing is known yet. The vacancy will be filled by an election held by the officers of the First regiment. In his resignation Colonel Park simply stated that he thought it best for the service that he should step out of the position he held, and asked to be relieved of duty immediately. The commanding officers expressed their regret at his action and asked him to reconsider his resignation, but the colonel would not consent to do this.

The cause of Colonel Park's resignation is well known. The conditions existing in the First regiment, as detailed in The Herald heretofore, are said to be responsible. It is well known that a number of other officers have left the service because of ill-feeling at headquarters. In regard to this, however, Colonel Park desired to make no statement.

"I have the interest of the guard at heart, and especially that of the enlisted men, and I simply felt that it was better for all concerned that I should resign. The commanding officers expressed their regret at my action. For the friendship I have from the enlisted men I regret to leave the guard, but I believe it the best thing to do."

In view of the action of Colonel Park, a general order has been issued by Adjutant General C. S. Burton, notifying the various organizations of the guard that they will be under the command of Major L. S. Heywood until a lieutenant colonel is elected. A call is made also for the election of a major by the officers of companies F, A and G. The ballots will be sent in to headquarters and the result of the election will probably be known in the near future.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

BANK CLEARINGS.—Yesterday's bank clearings were $182,341. For the same day a year ago they were $136,441.

NURSES GRADUATE.—The commencement exercises of the L. D. S. Relief society nurses' class will be held in Barratt hall Monday June 23, at 11 a. m.

ANOTHER NAVAL DESERTION.—Major Ezra Thompson was notified yesterday that Elbert Osborne Downing, who enlisted in the navy from this city, has deserted from the United States steamship Adams, which is stationed at San Diego.

LAW IS OBSERVED.—The health authorities have investigated the report that a family by the name of Jones, living across the street from the city hall, were violating the quarantine rules, and they report that so far as they can learn, all regulations are being observed. Smallpox is the disease at the house.

FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN FISKE.—The remains of Captain Daniel W. Fiske, who died in Brooklyn, N. Y., a few days ago, arrived in this city last night and were taken in charge by Undertaker S. D. Evans. Interment will take place today at 10 a. m. at Mt. Olivet cemetery. The remains will be laid beside those of his wife.

TWO CASES OF SMALLPOX.—Two cases of smallpox were yesterday reported to the city board of health. The patients being Lillian B. Hunter of 543 West Fourth South street, and Robert Will Kelson, aged 2, of 1321 W. 24th street. The latter case is in Sugar ward, showing that the disease has not been stamped out in that section of the city.

CLEAN PARLEY'S CONDUIT.—Superintendent of Waterworks Frank Hines will clean Parley's conduit, a job of eight miles long, and will require about fourteen hours to do the work. Every available man in the waterworks department will be put to work at 6:30 o'clock this morning. It is not expected that they will complete the job much before 10 o'clock this evening.

SHARP SELLS OUT.—William McConahay yesterday sold the business interest of John N. Sharp, Jr., in the jewelry firm of McConahay & Sharp. The price paid was not stated, but it is understood will reach near the $10,000 mark. Mr. McConahay says he will continue the business under the name of McConahay Jewelry company, and his place of business will remain where the old firm held forth.

TAXES ARE ALMOST DUE.—The collection of internal revenue taxes this year is exceedingly slow, according to the statement made yesterday by Collector Callister. Although they should be paid by the end of this month, he says that about two-thirds of the payers are now delinquent. Most of them are Montana saloonkeepers and brewers. After July 1 the penalty is 50 per cent of the tax.

SHEEP HAVE FITS.—Some sheep from a diseased herd caused a disturbance and considerable excitement among the women and children on Logan avenue yesterday. A woman living on the avenue has a herd of thirty-five or fifty sheep and recently a strange disease resembling fits attacked the flocks. Yesterday two of the sick ones got out of the enclosure and began chasing the women and children who passed by. The antics of the sheep caused considerable commotion for a while.

SWEDISH OUTING.—The Swedish following of Editor Otto Rydman, who have been endeavoring to organize a new organization in the Mormon church from that of the Danish people, will have an outing at Lake Powell, Wednesday. Leaders of the contingent will be present, and addresses bearing on the fight for a separate organization will be made. A new petition to the first presidency of the Swedes to sign. A program of sports and amusements will conclude the day.

GIRL BRUTALLY TREATED.—The police yesterday rescued from the American House on Commercial street Addie Dible, a feeble-minded girl who came to this city several days ago from Springville. The girl reported at the station that three men had, after getting her intoxicated, taken her to the American house and subjected her to brutal treatment. At the station the girl was very weak and faint, the city physician being called in to revive her. An effort will be made to send the girl back to her home. Thomas Burns was last night arrested by the police and is thought to be implicated in the crime.

REWARD FOR CREECHLEY.—Governor H. M. Wells yesterday offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and detention of Moses Creechley, who was recently convicted of perjury in Morgan county. He escaped from the county jail yesterday. He is also wanted to answer to two charges of grand larceny. Creechley is 35 years of age; five feet or ten inches tall; weighs about 190 pounds; light complexion; skin leathery and seamed; light gray eyes; hair rather dark and wavy; one tooth out in front and another front tooth one side; has a horse riders' walk; frequents saloons and dresses like a cowboy.

CALDER'S PARK TROUBLES.—The board of county commissioners has taken under advisement the matter of revoking the liquor license held by the managers of Calder's park. J. Bergerman appeared before the board at its noon session yesterday to show cause why the license should not be revoked. He said he had employed extra policemen and was doing everything in his power to prevent rowdyism. Sheriff Emery said the park is being conducted better than it was. W. R. Reed of the street car company said in a letter to the board that he could not see why it should revoke the license, as the resort is being conducted better now than it was a couple of weeks ago.

Utah Commercial and Savings Bank.—General banking business; interest paid on savings deposits. W. F. Armstrong, president; A. E. Caine, cashier.

Christensen's orchestra at Calder's, where 99 per cent of the best people go, and before long it will be 100 per cent.

Amusements.

"Little Christopher" is the biggest 50 cents worth of amusement ever given to opera patrons in Salt Lake—and then a good deal. The show had its premier production at the Salt Palace last night before an audience that filled practically every seat and left a lot of people standing up in the rear. The company amply met the high expectations of those who saw the first performance.

Much interest centered in the work of Miss Sallie Fisher in the name part, Miss Fisher hasn't been seen in Salt Lake opera since she won her way into the critical heart of New York last winter in "The Millionaire." Much was expected of her and, in the parlance, she "delivered the goods." She dances gracefully and both as a boy and as a girl she was altogether pleasing.

Miss Lottie Levy, always a favorite with Salt Lake audiences, maintained her reputation most satisfactorily. Her chief opportunity was the solo, "In Sunny Spain," which was enthusiastically received. Miss Levy's acting was as good as her singing and that is a full measure of praise.

Undoubtedly the most popular feature of the opera was Kenneth C. Kerr's rendition of the part of the boy, ruler of the island of Buratino. Mr. Kerr's ridiculous makeup provoked laughter the moment he was on the stage. His song, "I've Got My Eyes on You," was full of local hits, and Mr. Kerr was compelled to sing a number of verses of it.

F. H. Stevens as O'Hooligan, a private detective, was always amusing. His fun was of an insinuating, delicate character that could not fail to meet the approval of all his hearers. Mr. Stevens made a number of changes during the progress of the piece, always coming out in his fresh disguise with "they'll never know me."

Josh Davis, the esteemed president of the Blue church, trod the boards in the character of the Cadis and made a hit. Later he appeared in his familiar role of a Chinaman and scored another success.

Fred Graham, another well known favorite, didn't have the opportunities most of us would have wished for him, but those he did have he more than accepted and rose to it.

The work of the chorus and the other members of the cast will be noticed later. A fair criticism of the opera is that the orchestration is much too heavy throughout. At times it absolutely drowns the singing in a measure. The miserable acoustics of the Salt Palace have been overcome, but most of the defects in this line are still there.

"Little Christopher," as a whole, is well worth the time required to see and hear it. It will doubtless have, and it deserves to have, a successful two weeks' run as planned by the management.

FRAUD IS CLAIMED.

Litigation Against Mining President Involves Large Sum.

A criticism of one of the defendants to a federal court action appears in an opinion handed down yesterday. The case, which has been in litigation for several years, involves, with the interest on the money, a sum approximately estimated at $100,000.

The action brought by the Austin Mining company against Allan C. Washington and Philo T. Farnsworth to obtain an accounting of secret profits by the defendants as agents and trustees of the plaintiff, Anson Phelps Stokes of New York and persons associated with him subscribed some of the shares of the Austin Mining company, which was incorporated for the purpose of investing in Nevada property. Through an agreement with Farnsworth, Mr. Washington secured a controlling interest in the concern. An option was secured on the property of the Manhattan Mining & Reduction company in Nevada. By the terms of the agreement the Austin Mining company was to forfeit its payments and all right and title to the stock and bonds of the company if at any time it decided not to continue the payments, which were to be made in installments.

Washington, it was alleged, bought a note against the Manhattan company for less than its face value. He also secured an option on $500,000 worth of stock on which he was to realize a share of profit if it was purchased by the Austin Mining company. The face value of the note was $20,355.45 and dates from 1892. The option on the stock was secured in 1893.

The court holds that these speculations perpetrated by a fraud and that it was with manifest intention of fraud that Washington went into these deals and concealed the transactions from the stockholders. It was shown that Farnsworth did not share in the profits nor the deal. The court holds Washington responsible to the plaintiff in the sums named, with interest dating from the time the secret negotiations were entered into by Washington.
